

VT AJ Bell Moderately Adventurous Q2 2021 Report

Commentary

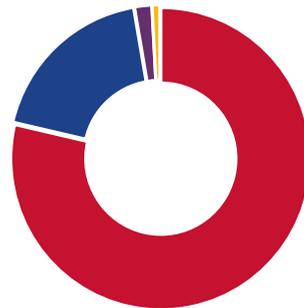

Despite a delay to the lifting of lockdown restrictions in the UK, financial markets continued their upward path in Q2. Investor optimism wasn't dampened by the rise in COVID-19 cases, or the still-looming spectre of inflation.

This had the effect of pushing money away from traditionally safe bonds and into shares. Across both developed and emerging markets, share prices once again improved – continuing the now-familiar story of stock markets rising despite lockdown and other business interruptions.

Inflation fears led to bonds performing poorly at the start of the year. However, Q2 saw a slight uptick in bond prices thanks to more stability about future inflation expectations. Turning to currency, the pound sterling was relatively flat compared to other currencies this quarter, but has still appreciated strongly against the US dollar and Euro over the last 12 months.

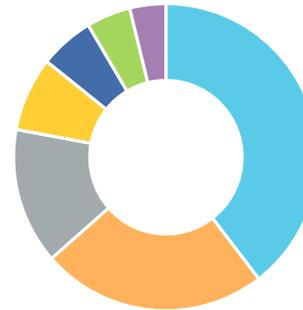

In the Moderately Adventurous fund, we hold a diversified range of shares and bonds, covering both domestic and international markets. This helped the fund return 4.7% this quarter, contributing to a 12-month total return of 16.4%.
