

Dealing account

Limited company application form

This form can be used by the directors of a limited company to apply for an AJ Bell Dealing Account (DA).

You should read the DA terms and conditions before completing this application.

To open this account, you'll need to make a minimum deposit. This can either be as a monthly Direct Debit of £25 or as a one-off payment of at least £250. If you transfer in another Limited company Dealing account, you don't need to make any payments.

We'll use your data in line with our Privacy policy. This explains what data we collect, how we use, share, and store it – including the potential impacts of third parties using your data.

Please use BLOCK CAPITALS only and blue or black ink, ticking the boxes where appropriate.

If you'd like a copy of this, or any other item of our literature, in large print, Braille or in audio format, please contact us on 0345 54 32 600 or by email at help@ajbell.co.uk.

Checklist

- Fully completed application form signed by a minimum of two directors, or one director and the company secretary, unless it's signed in accordance with the company's signing resolution. If there isn't a company secretary, the sole director must sign in the presence of a witness who needs to provide their name, occupation and address. The nominated contact must also sign if they haven't already signed.
- Signing resolution (if applicable)
- Identity and address verification for all controlling persons (recommended)
- Bank statement

User guide – Limited Company Dealing account application

Helpful tips

- Please provide a signing resolution for the company if it has one. If it doesn't have one, please make sure the application is signed by all directors who want to make future instructions – so that we have a record of their signature on file.
- An entity classification is required in all circumstances. So please make sure you complete this section of the application form.
- You must name a nominated contact, they must be employed by the limited company – they'll be the only person authorised to act on the account.
- We'll set up the account in the name of the nominated contact if they're a controlling person. If the nominated contact isn't a controlling person, it will be set up in the name of the first named individual on the application form. The account will be named as follows:
<Surname of controlling person> re <name of company> e.g. Jones re Jones Sport Ltd

Anti-money laundering requirements

We're required by law to check the identity of controlling persons, which we'll do via an electronic search. If there are more than two controlling persons, please copy and complete page three as many times as you need to. If the company is regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) or listed on the main market of the London Stock Exchange (LSE), we need only check two directors.

If our electronic search for a controlling person isn't successful, we'll need to see certified identification and address verification documents for them. To save time, it might be a good idea to provide these documents along with the application.

You can find out more about these requirements here: ajbell.co.uk/faq/ive-been-asked-send-you-documents-who-can-certify-them.

Tax Identification Numbers (TINs)

For each controlling person, we are required to obtain confirmation of all countries of citizenship and all countries of residence for tax purposes. For each country of residence for tax purposes, we also require a Tax Identification Number (TIN) and confirmation of what type of TIN it is. TIN is a generic term and is the unique identifier assigned to an individual by the tax administration authority of a country. It is a unique combination of letters and/or numbers used to identify them for the purposes of administering the tax laws of that country.

For individuals who are resident for tax in the UK, please provide their National Insurance number. For US citizens or US residents for tax, please provide their US Federal Taxpayer Identification Number. If a country in which an individual is resident for tax purposes does not issue a TIN, please use an equivalent unique identifier such as a social security number, a citizen or personal identification number or a resident registration number.

Legal Entity Identifiers

For all non-natural entities, we're required to obtain a reference number known as a 'Legal Entity Identifier' (LEI). This is used to identify the company as the entity executing trades. If you don't already have an LEI, you can find more information, and complete an application to request one, on the London Stock Exchange website: lseg.com/LEI.

Alternatively, if you only intend to invest in funds such as unit trusts, and OEICS, you don't need an LEI right now.

If your investment strategy changes in future and you do intend to buy investments that are traded on a stock exchange, you'll need to let us know and provide an LEI to start trading.

Please confirm if you will be proceeding with or without an LEI by ticking one of the boxes below

I want to proceed with an LEI  I want to proceed without an LEI

Please confirm your LEI in the section below

Section B - Details of controlling persons

Please provide details of all controlling persons, copying and completing this page as many times as is required.

Controlling persons in respect of a limited company may be a person or entity that has significant influence or control over the entity that is applying for the account. This may include owners, directors, partners, members of Boards of Directors or equivalent managing bodies of committees and other senior managers who are able to influence (or benefit from) the entity. More information on how to identify controlling persons (also known as 'persons with significant control') can be found on this gov.uk website.

If any of the controlling persons has been at the address shown for less than three years, please provide their previous address on a separate sheet and attach to this application.

Complex structures - If there is an ownership chain, and a controlling person is another limited company, please provide full details of the company and details of the company's controlling persons until the controlling person is an individual. For a complex structure, it's also helpful if you could provide a structure chart for reference. Please provide one for each company, in order of percentage shareholding on page 11 of this form.

The name of your first school

Section G - Entity classification

We are subject to UK regulations regarding international tax compliance, most notably in relation to the US Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) and the OECD Common Reporting Standard (CRS). These regulations require us to identify an entity's tax classification when an AJ Bell account is first opened and, depending on the classification, may at subsequent points in time report certain information to HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC).

A limited company is considered an 'entity' under these regulations and we have set out the most likely classifications for a limited company.

Please read through the descriptions below and tick the classification that applies. If the company does not fall under one of these classifications, and you know what the classification is, please contact us.

Please tick one of the following three options:

1. Certified Deemed-Compliant Financial Institution

A limited company may be a Financial Institution if it is established in the UK and it gives investment advice or it manages portfolios for customers for the purposes of investing, managing or administering funds held in the name of the customer with another Financial Institution.

There are no reporting requirements for a Certified Deemed-Compliant Financial Institution and therefore no requirement to have a Global Intermediary Identification Number (GIIN). Most investment advisers and investment managers are likely to fall into this category.

2. Active Non-Financial Entity (Active NFE)

There are several types of company that could be considered Active NFEs. The two most likely definitions are listed below. A company only needs to meet one of these to be considered an Active NFE.

- More than 50% of the company's gross income for the preceding calendar year (or other appropriate reporting period) comes from business or trading revenue rather than passive sources of income and more than 50% of the assets held by the company during the preceding calendar year (or other appropriate reporting period) are held for the purposes of producing business or trading revenue.
- The company is listed on an established securities market. The London Stock Exchange, AIM and PLUS are considered established securities markets for these purposes.

If this classification applies, we will report to HMRC in respect of the funds held in the company's AJ Bell DA, where we are required to.

We expect the majority of company applicants will fall into this classification

3. Passive Non-Financial Entity (Passive NFE)

If a company does not meet the definition of a Certified Deemed-Compliant Financial Institution or an Active NFE, it will be, by default, a Passive NFE.

If any controlling person of a Passive NFE is resident for tax purposes in a reportable jurisdiction under FATCA or CRS, we are required to provide certain account information to HMRC. We will notify you if the account is reportable.

Section H - How we use your information

Data privacy statement

We'll use the information you provide to check your identity – and the identity of anyone else who funds an investment made in your name or whose details you provide in this form as a controlling person – with credit reference and fraud prevention agencies. These agencies will record our checks and will make that record available so others are able to verify your identity.

So we can thoroughly check the available data, we verify your identity using scoring methods. If you supply false or inaccurate information and we suspect fraud, we'll inform the fraud prevention agencies.

If we can't verify your identity by electronic means, we may ask you for additional information.

We will also verify information against Companies House records. Where information provided on the application differs to the information held by Companies House, we may request evidence to support the extent of control the person/entity listed has over the company for which the account is being opened. Where discrepancies are identified between the information provided on the application form(s) and the information held by Companies House, we may need to report these discrepancies to Companies House. Any missing information will mean that the application process is delayed.

Depending how the data has been processed, and subject to some exemptions, you have a number of legal rights concerning your personal information. These include the right to:

- access personal information
- rectify/erase personal information
- restrict the processing of your personal information
- transfer your personal information
- object to the processing of personal information
- object to how we use your personal information for direct marketing purposes
- obtain a copy of personal information safeguards used for transfers outside your jurisdiction
- lodge a complaint with your local supervisory authority

To exercise these rights (or request details of the credit reference and fraud prevention agencies from which we obtain information and record information about you), please contact us. For more information, see our privacy policy on ajbell.co.uk.

How we communicate with you

Being a DIY investor is all about staying up to date. The good news is: we can help you.

AJ Bell would like to send you emails and other electronic communications to help you on your investing journey. Not only can you expect weekly market news and free articles from Shares magazine, but you'll be the first to hear about exclusive customer offers – including regular prize draws and invites to our popular investing events.

If you receive anything you don't like, don't worry: you can manage the type of communications you receive and unsubscribe at any time by updating your communications preferences in the 'my account area' of our website.
